

Introduced by Senator Denham

January 31, 2005

An act to amend Section 5345 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agricultural inspection. .

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 132, as introduced, Denham. Agricultural inspection.

Existing law makes it unlawful for a person to operate a vehicle knowing that the vehicle has previously failed to stop for an agricultural inspection, as specified.

This bill would make nonsubstantive changes in this provision.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 5345 of the Food and Agricultural Code
2 is amended to read:
3 5345. It is unlawful for any person to operate upon any
4 highway in this state ~~any a vehicle which, in violation of Section~~
5 ~~5344, was not stopped that failed to stop~~ as required by ~~that~~
6 ~~section~~ Section 5344, if the person who is operating ~~such the~~
7 vehicle knows of ~~such the~~ violation of Section 5344. The 8 violation of this section continues unless and until one of the 9 following occurs:
10 (a) A period of 24 hours has elapsed following the violation of 11 Section 5344.
12 (b) The operator who violated Section 5344 has been
13 apprehended and the vehicle ~~which that~~ is involved has been
14 inspected and released from quarantine by ~~any an~~ authorized

1 state plant quarantine officer. An operator who is so apprehended
2 does not violate this section by reason of operating the vehicle en
3 route to the closest inspection station immediately following his
4 apprehension for violation of Section 5344, nor does any other
5 person; who operates the vehicle for ~~such~~ this purpose; violate
6 this section.

O